“ Unusual travel suggestions are dancing lessons from God ”

KURT VONNEGUT

Written in Traveling holiday English

Okay, I confess. I'm an hotel and traveling victim. Although as I get a lot of fresh new ideas from this passion I can always say that even during my holiday I keep on working. And I believe so. Getting to new environments expands our knowledge and our curiosity. Please enjoy my choices and browse your holidays. Take your time and as much money as you can. I assure you that traveling is the best investment you can do to improve your creative skills.
